

Ryan Reck

515 Main Street Apt #4B, Chatham NJ, 07928

973-303-2673

rreck2@uis.edu

EDUCATION:

University of Illinois at Springfield, Springfield, IL

January 2018 – Present

Bachelor of Science – Computer Science with a minor in Mathematical Sciences

GPA – 4.0

Fairleigh Dickinson University, Madison, NJ

August 2011 – September 2015

Bachelor of Arts – History

GPA – 3.55; Graduated Cum Laude

EXPERIENCE:

Google Developers Challenge

January 2018 – Present

Recipient of the “Grow with Google - Google Developers Challenge Scholarship”

- Participated in Udacity’s Android Development Course with fellow Google Scholars
- Developed a weather app “SunShine” using Java and SQLite in Android Studio

The ECLC of New Jersey: Pride Program, Chatham, NJ

June 2012 – Present

Non-profit day rehabilitation program for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Activity Coordinator

- Maintained a safe, calm, and productive environment for clients and staff to thrive
- Assisted in quarterly scheduling of thirty clients based on their individual goals while maintaining appropriate staff to client ratio
- Collaborated with clients, staff, parents, and administration to improve our programs and help clients fulfill their individual goals
- Planned and led activities that promote independence and individual growth based on each client’s goals and abilities
- Actively maintained all proper certifications and knowledge of applicable laws and best practices in the field; including CPR/First Aid, Medication Administration, and all aspects of Danielle’s Law

TECHNICAL SKILLS:

Languages: Java, Python, HTML, CSS

IDE/Editors: Android Studio, Eclipse, BlueJ